BRISCOE

"The Best-liked Car in the Country"

You've Something New in Store
When You Ride in This
Briscoe Eight

YOU don't need to worry as you approach a hill, no matter how bad it may look. And you can take with you a party of the most accomplished "Kidders" in the country. For even they will have nothing but praise to offer as the car takes the hill on high with never an effort.

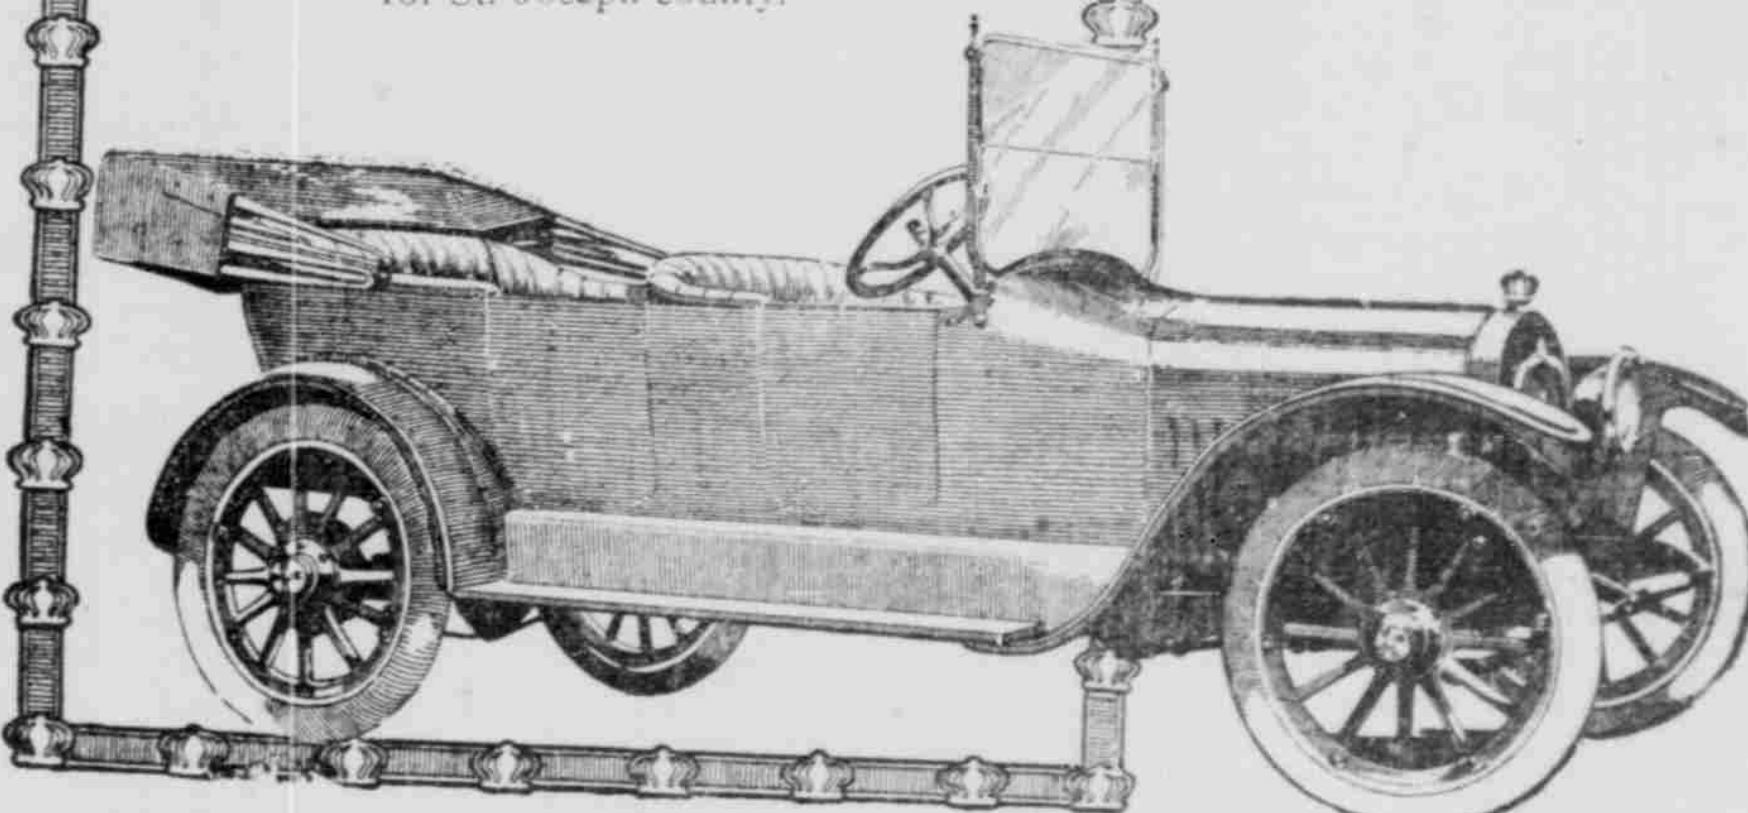

There's an irresistible thrill, too, as you pick up and pull away first at the traffic officer's signal; or creep through the crowded street at a snail's pace on high, amid the clash of the changing gears on your neighbor's car.

You'll find the whole car in harmony with its smoothness of operation. The graceful, distinctive body lines for which Benjamin Briscoe is famous; a full cantilever rear spring suspension which levels road inequalities; plenty of seat and leg-room; and a complete equipment of every motoring accessory.
